Student led advisory support, free of charge

Trained student teams deliver structured advice to organisations that need it

About us

Blackmont Consulting is a student led advisory platform. We help startups, SMEs, NGOs and mission led organisations turn complex challenges into clear recommendations and practical next steps, through disciplined eight week engagements.

Our mission

To help organisations improve performance, strengthen operations and unlock sustainable growth through accessible advisory support. In parallel, we develop student talent through real consulting experience.

Numbers

500+ client projects delivered

960+ students trained

21 branches worldwide

Every project is overseen by a Strategic Advisor with 3 or more years of experience.

02

Structured advice that asks little of your time

An eight week engagement with a light client commitment

30 minutes

Initial alignment meeting to agree your needs and objectives

20 to 30 minutes

Weekly session to review progress with the team

8 weeks

Advisory sprint from kickoff to final roadmap

Who we advise

- Startups, NGOs, nonprofits and mission led organisations
- Support across strategy, operations and go to market
- Recommendations that are practical, prioritised and measurable

What you receive

- Findings and recommendations built on evidence
- A next step roadmap you can act on
- Defined milestones and a clear weekly cadence

100% pro bono: no cost to your organisation at any stage.

03

Three services that turn questions into decisions

1 In-Depth Market Research

Rigorous, evidence based research for confident decisions across industries and regions.

What we assess

- Customer needs and behaviours
- Competitive landscape and market dynamics
- Demand across priority segments and regions

Outcome: Actionable insight that sharpens strategy and informs product and commercial decisions.

2 Go-to-Market Strategy

A structured plan to launch, refine or reposition products and services with commercial discipline.

What we assess

- Priority customer segments
- Value proposition and messaging
- Channel and partnership strategy

Outcome: A practical execution roadmap that accelerates adoption and improves performance.

3 Growth and Expansion Strategy

Growth strategies that unlock new opportunities while strengthening performance at scale.

What we assess

- Growth levers and priorities
- Acquisition, retention and commercial effectiveness
- Market entry for new regions or segments

Outcome: A structured scaling roadmap for resilient execution that adapts to change.

Every service runs for eight weeks and delivers advice and strategy, not implementation.

04

Disciplined delivery by trained student teams

Five strengths behind every engagement, with senior oversight

1

Project management

Clear scoping, defined milestones and a steady cadence keep every engagement on track from kickoff to final recommendation.

2

Strategy and problem solving

We turn complex business questions into structured workplans, hypotheses and decision ready insights.

3

Market research and insights

Customer research, competitor benchmarking and market assessment help you validate opportunities and understand demand.

4

Academic foundations

Our consultants study business, economics, engineering and other fields, which supports analytical depth and rounded thinking.

5

Fresh perspectives

We bring modern research methods and current best practice into every engagement, so advice stays relevant.

Every project includes Strategic Advisor oversight (3 or more years of experience) to challenge assumptions and quality check outputs before delivery.

05

Six reasons organisations choose Blackmont

Free, fast to start and tailored to your priorities

01 100% pro bono advisory

Research driven consulting at no cost, with no financial barrier for mission led organisations.

02 500+ client projects delivered

Real work for startups, NGOs and nonprofits, with solutions that make an impact.

03 960+ consultants trained

Analytical capability and structured problem solving, delivered with speed and consistency.

04 Fast, low friction delivery

30 minutes to start and 20 to 30 minutes weekly, so disruption to your operations stays minimal.

05 Tailored to your priorities

Every project is scoped around your objectives, context and constraints, so advice is relevant and practical.

06 Invest in future leaders

You help develop high performing student consultants and create long term value for the community.

06

Three phases take you from kickoff to handover

A short pre engagement phase, then eight weeks of delivery

A Pre engagement

Before week 1 Business Development Team

Kickoff and stakeholder alignment

We align on your needs, context and success measures.

Proposal and scope confirmation

We agree the scope, milestones and deliverables.

B Insight and strategy

Weeks 1 to 4 Business Consulting Team

Research and analysis

We gather and analyse the evidence behind your question.

Strategy build and validation

We shape options and test them against your priorities.

C Final outputs and handover

Weeks 5 to 8 Business Consulting Team

Final deliverables and readout

We present findings and recommendations to your team.

Closeout and next steps

We hand over a roadmap you can act on.
